

"Mimar Sinan Fine Arts University and MED 21 Program have been carrying out the "Mediterranean Mimar Sinan Prize" Program since 2014 in order to support architectural studies that emphasize common cultural circumstances among Mediterranean countries.

The program of this year, by which there will be given the third prize, will be organized in two categories, that all mediterranean countries will participate. The first category is the «Young Architect» category, which young architects under the age of 45 can participate by their one constructed building, and the other is the «Diploma Project» category, which can be attended by successful diploma projects that must be designed in last two years.

- Application conditions can be followed by the official website of Akdeniz Architect Sinan Award www.mmsprize.com.

- Applications will be available on the official web page between 1 June and 2 July 2018"